

Major modern Greek art exhibition opens in London

Monday, 6 June 2011

Andreas Embiricos, Delos, 1955. Vintage print. Courtesy of the Andreas Embiricos family Archive and Agra publications.

The most comprehensive exhibition of modern and contemporary Greek art to be staged in the UK, with over fifty works previously unseen in this country, opens in London on Thursday.

Curated by Nadja Argyropoulou, Ntepti Humanism at Faggionato Fine Arts brings together twenty artists working in a broad range of mediums, from photography, sculpture, painting, embroidery and performance art

Including pieces from the 1920s art scene as well as contemporary modern, the show reveals the extraordinary vibrancy of the Greek art scene.

Click here or on the image above for a picture preview

Ntepti Humanism opens 9 June until 12 August 2011 at Faggionato Fine Arts, London www.faggionato.com

Related videos

- <
- pause
- >

Sponsored Links

Ads by Google

- Study For A Masters
The Cost Effective Way.Register For Postgrad Courses In Arts&Humanities
www.Open.ac.uk/Arts-and-Humanities
- Visit London Museums
Up to 1/2 Price Offers on London's Best Museums. Sign Up & Enjoy!
KelkooSelect.co.uk/Museums
- United States Artists
Nonprofit organization supporting America's finest artists.
unitedstatesartists.org
- CANVAS ART from £14.99
High Quality Canvas Art Prints At Discount Prices Massive Selection
www.the-canvas-art-shop.co.uk